

COW DISEASE: Ketosis(Acetonemia)

Symptoms:

- Reduced milk production , Loss of appetite (particularly for grain) , Weight loss.
- Sweet or acetone-like smell in the breath, urine, or milk.

Cause by:

- Excessive mobilization of body fat leading to elevated ketone bodies in the blood

Prevention Measures:

- Ensure pregnant cows are vaccinated before conception
- Rotate pastures to prevent soil spore accumulation

Ayurvedic solution:

Amla

, Isabgol

Ashwagandha

Mix neem powder

in animal feed.