

COW DISEASE: Bovine Viral Diarrhoea (BVD)

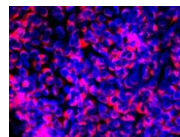

Symptoms:

- Nasal discharge, Diarrhoea (may be bloody in severe cases), Dehydration.
- Ulcers in the mouth, exophages, and intestines, Congenital defects in calves.

Cause by:

- Bovine Viral Diarrhoea Virus

(BVDV), Vertical

transmission from infected cows to calves during pregnancy.

Prevention Measures:

- Ensure pregnant cows are vaccinated before conception
- Rotate pastures to prevent soil spore accumulation

Ayurvedic solution:

Amla

,Isabgol

Ashwagandha

and Mix neem powder

in animal feed.